

NHS ANNOUNCEMENTS

Week of November 9-13, 2021

Congratulations to the following Varsity Volleyball players on receiving District Honors. 1st Team All District - Taylor McCabe, 2nd Team All District - Jayonna Taylor, Honorable Mention - Hannah Wilson

Teachers, Staff and Students, JROTC is having their 2nd Annual Turkey Shoot in the JROTC range next week, 15-19 November. Top 15 shooters will win a turkey and bragging rights on being the best shots at Northwood. Last year the bragging rights went to Mr Maniero as top shooter. Cost is $5 to participate. Good Luck!

Attention Spirited Falcons: Our football team is hosting the first play off game of the year against Pearl River. This Friday, we are going to send the Rebels PACKING. So wear your best TACKY TOURIST attire to show your support to our District Champion football team.

Sunday, November 14th is Diabetic Awareness Day. Many of our students and community members are affected by this illness. To honor them, we are asking for everyone to wear blue on Monday, November 15, 2021.

Senior officers: Meeting Thursday at 8:00 in Mrs. Hearron's room.

Senior Survivor-November: 2nd challenge completed and the updated list is in the hallways! The 3rd challenge is : write a 5 paragraph essay telling us what it means to be a Senior Falcon. Tell us what's important to you personally, to others, clubs, activities, grades, involvement, peers, social aspects and any and everything that makes you unique! Due Nov 30th at 8:30 am to Mrs. Hearron -room 106